

ATMCONTENTPRO APPLIANCE

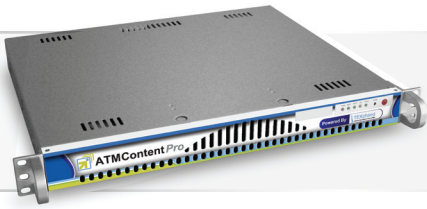

UNLOCK THE VALUE IN YOUR ATMS

AFFORDABLE...SIMPLE...EASY-TO-USE...COMPLETE...

ATMContentPro makes content management as simple as plug'n'play for any size network

TEKchand's ATMContentPro Appliance enables any ATM or Kiosk owner with the ability to remotely deliver stunning graphics, targeted marketing messages, or simply capture electronic journals, in an instant, with a single all-in-one solution. Compatibility concerns disappear as ATMContentPro can manage all your terminals, regardless of hardware or software configurations. Because ATMContentPro comes pre-configured with everything you need— hardware, application software, security protocols, complete maintenance package and installation— you can be up and running with an affordable, real-time content management solution in just days.

ATMContentPro SIMPLICITY IN A BOX!

For once, a content management solution that is affordable, secure, easy to use, and that will be operating in just days!

COMPREHENSIVE APPLIANCE MODEL

ATMContentPro is a complete end-to-end solution that combines all mission critical elements into a single appliance package. ATMContentPro delivers pre-configured hardware, and its powerful ATMLive Manager Platform, coupled with industry accepted security standards and TEKchand's proprietary multi-level administration structure, assures complete security and control over the content in your ATM channel.

NO INTERNAL RESOURCES NEEDED

With the ATMContentPro Appliance, there is no need to worry about allocating strained technical resources to implement ATMContentPro because TEKchand becomes your dedicated IT department, interfacing with your network and internal IT staff for easy implementation.

COMPLETE TRAINING

TEKchand supplies free online computer based training modules so you can learn to use ATMContentPro immediately and at your own pace.

ATM CHANNEL MANAGEMENT MADE EASY!

With ATMContentPro's web interface, remote device management, managing marketing campaigns or electronic journals is as easy as point 'n' click.

TEKchand Appliance ADVANTAGE

- ▶ TEKchand appliances make channel management solutions accessible for all size ATM/Kiosk owners by eliminating the cost and complexity of deploying traditional management software packages such as hardware procurement, software installation, integration, training and maintenance.
- ▶ TEKchand delivers a complete, pre-integrated bundle of operating and application software via a dedicated physical or virtual appliance.
- ▶ License the product functionality individually and scale up as you need, or as a comprehensive package for a complete ATM Channel Management Appliance.
